

TELLS PASTORS TO READ BOOKS

New Mexico Conference Devotes Morning Session to Hearing Reports.

Clovis, N. M., Oct. 2.—The morning session of the Methodist conference was devoted largely to hearing reports from pastoral charges.

A. J. Lamar addressed the body on books. He said: "Read the best books to keep abreast of the times. You preach to lawyers and business men who read. Do not commit the sin of 45, the sin of abandoning study. After passing the age of 45 read the big books. Take the advice of bishop Keener, and do not read a book until it has passed the fourth edition."

Additional remarks on this subject were made by W. P. Bradford and A. Y. Miller, editors of the Advocate.

Influence of Sunday Schools Felt.

C. P. Moore, field superintendent for the southwest, spoke on Sunday school interests in his territory, which contains a square mileage equal to that of all southern Methodism east of Mississippi. He stated that the southern Methodist church last year received from Sunday schools, 75,395 members, which equaled 90 percent of its membership.

HOGS RAID SWEET POTATO PATCH; DAMAGES AWARDED

A Chinese known as "Charlie" won a judgment for $19.75 before a jury in justice of the peace J. M. Deaver's court Wednesday because of damage done to his sweet potato patch by six hogs owned by Maximino Carillo.

The jury decided the Chinese should have the $19.75, while Carillo should have his hogs back.

TRAINS CRASH; 2 DEAD; MANY HURT

Accident in Pennsylvania Results in Serious Injury of Many.

Altoona, Pa., Oct. 2.—Two men are believed to have been killed, an engine was seriously damaged and a dozen mail clerks and passengers were injured when the Mercantile Express and the Pennsylvania railroad between Pittsburgh and New York crashed into a rear of a stock train here early today. Fire broke out in the wreckage.

Many of the passengers assisted in the work when it became known that conductor Eitelberger and a driver were missing and were believed to be in the burning debris, but their efforts were fruitless.

GEN. GOETHALS WILL HEAD ADAMSON LAW INVESTIGATORS

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 2.—Mal. George W. Goethals, governor of the Panama canal zone, and commissioner Clark of the interstate commerce commission, have been selected by president Wilson as two of the three members of the board created by congress to investigate the Adamson eight hour law.

Formal announcement of the selection of all three members will be made tonight.

The president made the selections several days ago and has been awaiting for the acceptances. Gen. Goethals is a member of the federal trade commission, and commissioner Clark of the interstate commerce commission.

George Rulmer, of New Hampshire, a member of the federal trade commission, has been selected as the third member of the board.

ROTARY BACKS CLEANUP PLAN

Club Harkens to LeBaron's Appeal; Boy Scouts to Be Exposition Guides.

"Clean up day" on Friday and Saturday will receive the active support of the Rotary club as a result of the appeal sounded at Thursday's luncheon by George R. LeBaron, Mr. LeBaron pointed out the importance of the farm congress exposition and elephant butte dam dedication this month, and emphasized the point that the city should put its best foot forward to give the thousands of visitors who will be here a favorable impression. The club went over the matter as in favor of the "clean-up" day movement.

Mr. LeBaron also invited the Rotary club to attend the exercises next Monday night, when the new buildings of the soil products exposition will be dedicated.

First View Monday.

The first view of the big exposition can be had Monday and that business men who want to take space should apply at once and start the preparation of their displays. The arrangement of a Rotary club booth at the exposition was left up to the board of directors.

Kraemer Urges Haste.

Robert Kraemer also emphasized the fact that the exposition will open a week from Saturday and that business men who want to take space should apply at once and start the preparation of their displays. The arrangement of a Rotary club booth at the exposition was left up to the board of directors.

Boy Scout Rally To Meet.

It was announced that the boy scout committee of the club will meet Friday afternoon at 6 o'clock. At that time, about 20 boys will be given their preliminary training as scouts at the V. M. C. A. These boys will act as guides during the exposition.

The club will hold its luncheon Oct. 18 at the Mexican restaurant under the auspices of the Woman's club.

New Collection Device.

When the inevitable hour for the luncheon collection came around, R. Burt Orndorff suggested that the club try the new collection device adopted by an enterprising church.

"This collection plate," Mr. Orndorff said, "remains silent when a church member deposits a quarter or more, but when a dime is put into the plate a bell rings; a whistle blows when a nickel is deposited; a blank cartridge explodes when a penny is dropped into the plate, and when a member tries to pretend he is asleep, the plate sets off a flashlight and a wad of snap shot is taken of the sleepy one."

Dr. Carpenter, Chairman.

Owing to press of business, G. A. Martin asked to be relieved from chairmanship of the Rotary club committee to arrange for Rotary day at the Soil Products exposition and Dr. E. H. Carpenter has been named chairman. Other members of the committee are S. C. Aubrey, H. R. McClinton and M. P. Carlock.

Along Way From No. 5 To First In Blanket Making But America Has Started To Excel

AUSTRIA, England, France, Germany have secret processes and blendings which make their all-wool blankets delightful to the touch and eye. But America is learning.

High-grade American Merchants wakened up a lot of fine American mills, last year. They had been filling orders for stores who wanted cheap blankets, and who were always asking the makers how cheap they could make blankets, thereby reducing the quality.

But "The Popular's" bedding chief together with other representatives of high grade establishments asked them "how good they could make blankets." Showed them samples of finest imported blankets. Asked for reproductions. This advertisement is written because the reproductions are here: (Bed Blankets on 6th floor; Baby Blankets on 4th)
